Dear Governor Inslee,

Please accept Partners in Careers letter of support for the Poverty Reduction Work Group's 10-year Plan for the Future to reduce poverty and inequality in Washington state. For the past two years, PRWG has worked diligently to develop a plan that, if implemented, will meaningfully and measurably reduce poverty and inequality in Washington state. We are grateful to you for your support of poverty reduction, and look forward to bringing the plan to action.

Reducing poverty and inequality is critically important to the mission of Partners in Careers. As a nonprofit that works directly with individuals and families living in poverty to gain meaningful employment, we know first-hand the struggles they face in moving forward. The strategies outlined in the Plan for the Future will provide tangible steps and tools to remove barriers and set those in poverty on the path to success. These strategies, along with focused funding, will also help organizations across the State come along beside these individuals to provide informed and compassionate support.

We understand that the PRWG co-lead agencies will be conducting a series of community engagement meetings and finalizing the 10-year Plan for the Future this summer. We look forward to supporting their efforts. In the meantime, we urge your continued support of the strategic plan and taking immediate steps to begin implementing it by:

- Directing state agencies to write action plans to fulfill the strategies outlined in the plan;
- Elevating the influence and expertise of people most affected by poverty in the implementation of the plan;
- Ensuring that the recommendations from the Steering Committee are prioritized; and
- Funding the PRWG's short-term priorities in the next budget cycle.

We believe these actions will lay a strong foundation for the full implementation of the plan over the next 10 years, and provide immediate, urgent relief for the 1.8 million Washingtonians currently struggling to make ends meet in communities throughout our state.

Thank you for supporting the Poverty Reduction Work Group and your passion for making Washington state a place where every child, adults, and family can thrive. If we can do anything further to support this effort, please do not hesitate to ask.

Sincerely,

Sharon Pesut
